

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA PRESS

PUBLISHING DIVISION OF THE UNIVERSITY : NORMAN, OKLAHOMA

October 22, 1947

Dear Ferdie:

If you are asking me, I don't think you look at all like your natural self, dressed up as you are in German. The copy of your U.S.D.A. in German translation, published by Verlagsbuchhandlung Eugen Ulmer, Stuttgart, is a much better job, however, than I thought it could possibly be when we signed the contract with the federal government. Also, and not incidentally, I think the government is doing a double-barreled service in promoting a publication of this type, first by showing the Germans that no institution in this country is too sacred to be criticized, and second that the happy features of economic organization which you describe might well be adopted in Germany itself.

Cordially yours,

Savio Lottinville
