H. S. R. No. 199

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, It is to the interest of all Texas to develop rural life to the end that agriculture may be saved for the well being of the people of Texas; and

WHEREAS, A great example of rural development has been demonstrated to the people of Texas by the little community of Black Hill in Atascosa County, Texas; and

WHEREAS, The Editor of the Farmer Stockman Magazine presented a One Thousand Dollar ($1,000) check to this little community for its outstanding work in rural development; and

WHEREAS, This is the second time in succession that this little community of Black Hill has won an award for outstanding development; and

WHEREAS, In this small community of only forty families and one hundred and sixty-five population it is demonstrated by their accomplishments what can be done to make rural life more attractive and more profitable to the rural people of Texas; and

WHEREAS, Their great development can be an incentive to all other rural communities in Texas to follow their lead and make and rebuild the agricultural interests of Texas; and

WHEREAS, The Farmer Stockman Magazine has offered a substantial cash award as an incentive to encourage rural development; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Legislature of Texas express to the Magazine and its editors and publishers our thanks for their splendid
