Dear Mr. Deering:

Congratulations! The United States Industrial Council Educational Foundation is pleased to inform you that you are the winner of an honorable mention award in the 1979 Awards Contest for Editorials and Editorial Cartoons.

Your winning entry reflects outstanding skill in defending our country's free enterprise system. We at the USIC Foundation thank you for competing in the contest and for your efforts in reaching the public with a message of economic common sense. Your awards check of $50 will be mailed to you shortly, along with the booklet, 1979 Award Winning Editorials and Editorial Cartoons.

Again, the Foundation extends our congratulations to you.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Bennett
